

Year 7 Woodwork Mastery Criteria	Practical Skills	Knowledge & Theory
Ambitious	- I can choose and use a variety of woodworking tools accurately, demonstrating independence and confidence when manufacturing my product. - I can check my work as it progress and correct any errors. - I can carefully consider presentation when applying a finish to my work, resulting in a high-quality outcome.	- I can explain the difference between deciduous and coniferous timbers, giving examples of both hardwoods and softwoods. - I can explain what a manufactured board is and give a range of examples. - I can identify and explain the use of a wide range of woodworking tools. - I can plan my work carefully and work from my own detailed plan.
Mastered	- I can choose and use a variety of woodworking tools and equipment with some precision and explain my choices - I can demonstrate that I can work independently most of the time. - I can apply a finish to my product with reasonable consideration about the final presentation.	- I can explain that there are three categories of timber: hardwood, softwood and manufactured boards and give examples of each. - I can identify and explain the use of most woodworking tools and equipment that have been used in the manufacture of the product. - I can produce a step-by-step plan to help when making.
Developing	- I can select what woodworking tools are needed to manufacture the product and explain my choice. - I can use tools as instructed with some support from my teacher. - I can apply a finish to my product with some consideration about the final presentation.	- I can apply basic knowledge of types of timber, specifying the names of the timber, such as pine and MDF, used to make components of the product. - I can identify and name basic woodworking tools and explain what they are used for. - I can produce a step-by-step plan to help when making.
Emerging	- I can manufacture the product using woodworking tools and equipment as directed whilst being supported by the teacher. - I can apply a finish to my product with limited consideration about the final presentation.	- I can demonstrate basic knowledge of types of timber, knowing the specific material from which the product is made. - I can identify and name the basic woodworking tools used in the manufacture of the product. - I can use a given step-by-step plan to help when making.